RESEARCH REPORT EXAMPLE

DATE: XXX

REPORT TO: XXX

OBJECTIVE: Document XXX Erickson's great grandparents, Erick and Carrie Erickson in Minnesota, determine where they came from in Sweden, and document their parents in Sweden. This is not meant to be an exhaustive search of all U.S. or Swedish records, but merely sufficient to establish their connection to Sweden.

KEY FINDINGS: XXX Erickson's great grandparents, Erick Erickson and Carrie Erickson, are identical to Tåpp Erik Ersson (1872-1950) and Backas Karin Larsdotter (1867-1932) both from Garsås, Mora, Dalarna, Sweden. They had two children, Anna Ersdotter and Anders Ersson while in Sweden. Erik immigrated to the United States (U.S.) alone in 1902. Karin and their two children Anna and Anders immigrated in 1907. After arriving in the U.S. they had two more children, Arthur and Erick (XXX's Grandfather.)

Background: Starting with the information you provided to me, we knew only that Erick and Carrie Erickson had migrated from Sweden to St. Paul, Minnesota with their children Annie and Andrew, and that they had two children in the Minnesota, Arthur Erickson and your Grandfather Erick Erickson. We did not have birth dates, marriage dates, death dates but you were able to provide me with a copy of the family entry in the 1920 Federal Census (which did not list Annie.) Also, you believed that they may have come from the Dalarna area, although there was no known document in the U.S. that indicated specifically where in Sweden they came from.

Explanatory Notes: First, while Sweden had one of the highest literacy rates in the world during the 19th Century, spelling was very irregular, especially with names of people and places. In the case of your family, where in the U.S. Erickson was used, in Sweden I found, Ericsson, Ersson, and Eriksson, this is completely typical. Carrie in the U.S. was actually Karin or Carin in Sweden. I have preserved the spellings from the original records in the transcriptions or translations, but in most cases I have used standard spellings in the text of this research report.

Second, during the period that is covered by this research report Sweden was undergoing a change in tradition and law regarding surnames. For many centuries most families used a patronymic naming system: a son of Johan Larsson would have the last name Johansson, and a daughter would have the last name Johansdotter. At this time, there was increasingly a tendency—partially through force of law—to select a surname that would then be used by the children, just as we use surnames in the U.S. today. However, Dalarna, the area your family came from, is famously conservative and anti-authoritarian and some people to this day use the patronymic naming system. The bottom line is, you will see inconsistencies in surnames among some of your family members.

Third, and to confuse matters even more, many farmers in Dalarna adopted the name of the farm on which they lived and placed it before their first name. So Tåpp Erik Ersson was really Erik Ersson from the farm of Tåpp. If they moved sometimes they usually changed their “farm name,” although sometimes they would not. Occasionally, they even retained these names, sometimes as a first name other times as their family names, when they immigrated to the U.S.

Fourth, married women in Sweden did not take surname of their husband. So a woman born Brita Andersdotter would still be Brita Andersdotter even if she married Lars Larsson.

ANALYSIS

No known source in the U.S. indicates that Erick and Carrie Erickson and their children Annie and Andrew were from Garsås, Mora, Dalarna, Sweden. However, by pulling together as much information as possible both here in the U.S. and in Sweden, it is certainly the fact that this is the same family as Tåpp Erik Ersson, his wife Backas Karin Larsdotter, their two children Anna Ersdotter and Anders Ersson, who lived in Garsås, Mora and immigrated to U.S.

Erick and Carrie Erickson Family in St. Paul, Minnesota

The Federal census reports of 1910, 1920, and 1930 for St. Paul, Ramsey County, Minnesota suggest general agreement on several, but not all, basic pieces of information about the family.<sup>1</sup> Information in census records should be taken with a grain a salt as there are several potential points at which information could be distorted. The following chart highlights the information on the Erick and Carrie Erickson family for the 1910 through 1930 censuses.

Name	Estimated Birth Date (Birth Place)			Year of Immigration
	1910 Census	1920 Census	1930 Census	1910 Census	1920 Census	1930 Census
Erick Erickson, Sr.	1872 (Sweden)	1873 (Sweden)	1875 (Sweden)	1892	1902	1902
Carrie Erickson	1868 (Sweden)	1868 (Sweden)	1867 (Sweden)	1907	1907	1909
Annie Erickson	1902 (Sweden)	Not Included	Not Included	-	Not Included	Not Included
Andrew Erickson	1903 (Sweden)	1904 (Sweden)	1904 (Sweden)	-	1907	1909
Arthur Erickson	Jul 1909 (Minnesota)	1911 (Minnesota)	1910 (Minnesota)	-	-	-
Erick Erickson, Jr.	Not Included	1912 (Minnesota)	1911 (Minnesota)	Not Included	-	-

Based on the census reports, Erick Erickson, Sr. was likely born the first half of the 1870s in Sweden. He may have immigrated twice, but it also may be that he immigrated in 1902 and the 1892 is merely a 10 year math error on the part of the census enumerator. There seems general agreement that Carrie was born in Sweden in 1868/7 and immigrated in 1907. The 1909 immigration date is unlikely if Arthur was born in about July of 1909, and assuming that Erick Sr. is the father, she almost certainly was in the U.S. by the end of 1908.

Annie is more problematic as she is difficult to identify without more information. By 1920 she would have been 18 years old. Swedish Americans did not tend to marry that early, but it is not unheard of. It is more likely however that she was working, perhaps as a housekeeper. Young Swedish girls were highly valued as housekeepers in the U.S.

Andrew was likely born sometime in 1903 or earlier if Erick Sr. is his father and if Erick emigrated from Sweden in 1902.

In addition to the dates of birth and immigration we find in the 1930 census that the Erickson family lives at 592 Wells Street, St. Paul, Minnesota. A local cemetery, Union Cemetery has a listing for a 65 year-old Carrie Erickson, whose next of kin, E. Erickson, lived at 592 Wells Street.<sup>2</sup> This Carrie Erickson died 28 December 1932. The Union Cemetery also lists the death of a 78 year-old Erick Erickson on the 13 January 1950 and who's next of kin, Andrew Erickson, lived at 1035 Reaney.<sup>3</sup>

The cemetery information largely supports the information from the death certificates of Erick and Carrie. The death certificate of Carrie Ericksson provides us with the following pieces of information. Carrie was born 15 September 1867 in Sweden, her father was "Lars Bengston" [sic] and mother was "Unknown."<sup>4</sup> Carrie died 28 December 1932 and was buried 30 December 1932 at Union Cemetery. It also tells us that she was living in St. Paul since coming to the U.S. 25 years, 3 months, and 23 days before her death. Which would make her immigration approximately 5 September 1907. The informant for Carrie's death certificate was her husband Erick Erickson.

The death certificate for Erick Erickson indicates that Erick was born 10 February 1871 in Sweden to father "Edward Erickson" and mother "Bertha ?" [sic]. Also, his spouse was listed as Carine Larson.<sup>5</sup> Erick died 13 January 1950 and was buried 16 January 1950 at Union Cemetery. The informant was "M. Zenk" who had an address of the Anker Hospital.

The death certificates confirm much of what we knew but also gave us birth dates and names of parents to try and match on. With regard to the parents, Carrie's father would more likely be Lars "Bengtsson", a typical Swedish name, rather than Bengston. Erick was likely born early enough that he would have had a patronymic name, so it is unlikely that his father's name is Edward. It is more likely Eric. And the question mark next to his mothers name does not inspire confidence.

Based on this information, we are looking for a family that fits the following general description.

	Name	Born	Immigrated
Father:	Erick Erickson (probably Eric Ericsson)	10 February 1871/2	1902
Mother:	Carrie Larson (probably Karin Larsdotter daughter of Lars Bengtsson)	15 September 1867/8	1907
Children:	Annie Erickson (probably Anna Ericdotter)	1902	1907
	Andrew Erickson (probably Anders Ericson)	1903	1907

Emigration and Immigration Research

Although we are looking for two groups of migrants, Erick in 1902, and Carrie with Annie and Andrew in 1907, because of how common Erick Erickson is, it will be easier to narrow down the search by looking for Carrie, Annie, and Andrew traveling as a group.

Carrie Erickson 1907 (with Annie and Andrew)

A search of passenger lists for ships departing Göteborg, Sweden in 1907 turned up one likely candidate family group. On 19 July 1907 the ship Ariosto left Göteborg, Sweden for Hull, England. This was the most common route for emigrates to take to the U.S. from Sweden: going first from Göteborg to Hull, England, taking the train across England from Hull to Liverpool, and traveling from Liverpool to a port in the U.S. On board the Ariosto were 176 people, three of whom were going to St. Paul. In second class there was a Karin Eriksson aged 39 from Mora, Dalarna.<sup>6</sup> And in third class were two children traveling together on the same ticket, Anna Eriksson age 7 from Mora, Dalarna and Anders Eriksson age 4 from also from Mora, Dalarna.<sup>7</sup> There were two other individuals from Mora, Dalarna, including a Kerstin Ersdotter age 21 traveling to Boston, Massachusetts.<sup>8</sup> It is interesting to note that she purchased the ticket that immediately precedes Karin Eriksson's ticket. It is likely that although they were traveling to different destinations, that they were traveling together and at a minimum knew each other, and may have been family. The other individual Eric Rolfson age 23 was traveling to Rapid City, South Dakota. He does not appear to be related to the others. Although there is no certainty that Karin, Anna, and Anders were traveling together it seems very likely considering Karin is the only adult on board whose declared destination is the same as the children and considering the ages and destinations of Kerstin Ersdotter and Eric Rolfson, they do not seem likely to be the children's parents. A period postcard showing the Ariosto can be found in Attachment 5.<sup>9</sup>

Looking more closely at the Göteborg to Hull passenger lists, it is clear that Karin, Anna, and Anders ages match very closely what we would expect for Carrie, Annie, and Andrew. Karin would have been born about 1868, Anna would have been born about 1900, and Anders would have been born about 1903.

Based on the fact that Kerstin Ersdotter is traveling to Boston, we look at the Boston immigration records for the months of July and August 1907 and find what appear to be the same individuals Kristina Eriksson, Karin Eriksson, Anna Erikson, and Anders Eriksson traveling on the Cunard line ship Saxonia out of Liverpool, England.<sup>10</sup> A period post card of the Saxonia can be found in Attachment 7.<sup>11</sup> Again Anna and Anders are not listed directly with Karin, however, we can now determine this is the same family because the destination for the Karin is "Husband T.E. Ericsson 674 Magnolia Str. St Paul Minn". And for Anna and Anders their destination is "Father T.E. Ericsson 674 Magnolia Str. St Paul Minn". We also note that the husband/father is T. E. Ericsson. This appears to be new information. Also, while the Karin was listed as having been born in Mora, Anna and Anders are listed as having been born in Garsås, Sweden. Garsås is a small village in the Mora Parish.

Täpp Eric Ersson and Backas Karin Larsdotter family in Garsås, Mora, Dalarna, Sweden

Looking at the Moving Out records from Mora in 1907 only one family fits the description we had determined we were looking for, they were as follows.<sup>12</sup> Karin Larsdotter, a farmer's wife, born 15 September 1867 traveling with an unidentified girl Täpp Anna Ersdotter, born 15 June 1900 and a son Täpp Anders Ersson, born in 1903. Although the girl Täpp Anna is not identified as Karin's daughter she is listed between Karin and Anders and they all left Garsås on the same day, 5 July 1907. The group was destined for North America. This would have given them about two weeks to get to Göteborg and get on the ship; a perfectly reasonable amount of time. Note that Täpp is a farm name, used similarly to a family name, in the Dalarna region of Sweden the farm name usually preceded individuals' names, in other parts of Sweden and in Norway it would have come at the end of the name.

period we find a family that matches the family we were looking for.<sup>13</sup> This household consists of a husband Erik Ersson, who was born 10 February 1872, married 24 December 1899, and who emigrated 2 August 1902 to North America. The wife Karin Larsdotter with the same birth and emigration information listed above with two children, a daughter Anna, born 15 June 1900, and a son Anders, born 9 February 1903.

Additional Minnesota records support this information. For example, Tapp Erick Erickson filed a Declaration of Intention to naturalize in St Paul in 1919.<sup>14</sup> The information in this aligns with Erick Erickson, same address-608 Wells Street, St Paul; born 10 February 1872; wife's name of Carrie. Similarly, the Alien Registration and Declaration of Holdings forms for both Carrie<sup>15</sup> and Erick shows similar alignment.<sup>16</sup>

Thus with all of the information from U.S. and Sweden taken together, we can now confidently say that Erick and Carrie Erickson and their two children Annie and Andrew are the same family as Tapp Erik Ersson (1872-1950) and Backas Karin Larsdotter (1867-1932) with their children Anna and Anders.

Further Research

Because this was a fairly limited scope research project a number of areas of research remain uninvestigated. I would recommend that the following would be the most productive next steps in your research. Note that these are general recommendations; a more detailed list of sources can be provided if you are interested in pursuing one or more of these options.

1. Further document Erick and Carrie's children. Because this is your grandfather's generation you may have a number of sources of information in your home or you could get from other family members.
2. Documentation of the emigration/immigration of Erick Erickson. His Declaration of Intention notes that he departed from Liverpool on the Champaign, Soo Line and arrived in Sault Ste Marie, Michigan. Both this trip and the trip from, presumably, Göteborg to England are likely identifiable using Göteborg Emigration Records, available on Ancestry.com and U.S. Passenger Lists, also available on Ancestry.com.

3. Additional family in the U.S. Erick's Alien Registration Form lists a cousin, Mr. R. Anderson, who was serving in the U.S. military in 1918, during the War. Military, census, naturalization records will all be important this researching Mr. Anderson. Additionally, the Kristina/Kerstin Ersdotter who traveled to the U.S. with Karin, Anna, and Anders is likely a cousin. Also, there were a few other cousins that I noticed who emigrated from Sweden with a destination of North America.
4. Additional research on the family in Sweden. I have only scratched the surface of the records for this family. There is a significant amount of work that can be done to find ancestors and relatives. I found another person researching this family in Sweden, however, I have not validated his work so I would recommend that you employ a "trust but verify" approach to any research that you get from. Let's talk about this when you have time.
